

2020 AAP PHILOSOTHON

Australasian
Association of Philosophy

July
2020

The Australian Association of Philosophy (AAP) proudly announces it will host the 10th Australasian Philosothon online on

29th - 30th September 2020

What happens when you get together the best student minds from twenty outstanding schools for two days of intense argument and collaboration?

“An inspiring sense of what young people are capable of when they're given a conducive environment for thinking and discussion.”

What is a Philosothon?

A Philosothon is an annual competition wherein students explore philosophical and ethical issues. Philosothons are held in all Australian states, New Zealand, and the UK. An essential component of a Philosothon is the pedagogical model for teaching Philosophy to young people called Community of Inquiry.
